

Celebrate!

Psalm 100

We celebrate God gladly

when we _____ Him _____

1. His _____

2. His _____

For Further Reflection and Discussion

Opener: If you were given a large amount of money, what would you do first?

How did God speak to you or work in you at church this Sunday?

Read Psalm 100. What theme or themes is/are being focused on in this psalm?

When you come to this psalm, which encourages loud and joyful worship, what's your starting point?

- Does this style of worship feel natural and appealing to you, or is it more of a stretch?
- In this season of your life, how easy or difficult is it for you to engage authentically in happy, celebratory worship? Does it feel natural or like more of a choice?

In v. 3, what reasons are given to praise the Lord?

What has God done to make us His people?

How does God being our shepherd show His greatness?

- What has this looked like in your life?

If God were only great but not good, what would that mean for our lives and our relationship with Him?

What from v. 5 resonates with you personally and how you have experienced God's goodness?

As you contemplate God's greatness and goodness, what are you thankful for today?

How can we pray for each other?
