For Further Reflection and Discussion

Opener: Who was one of your heroes growing up? How did you try to imitate him or her?

How did you encounter God at church this Sunday?

How's your experience with the "Connect Four" emphasis been so far?

- What have you noticed about Jesus and his interactions with people as you have been engaging with Scripture?
- How have you heard God speaking as you have been praying for your "four"?
- Has God given any opportunities for a conversation about spiritual things with any of the people you are praying for?

How do you think we individually and we as a church should gauge "success" when it comes to this "Connect Four" emphasis?

On Sunday, Pastor Tim suggested that a way we can pray for the disconnect people we care about is that they would have a revelation of truth in their lives. As you think about the people you are praying for, what do you want this to look like for them?

- Do they need to know that God exists, what he is like, their own need for him, or something else?

Why do you think that people end up with distorted ideas of what God is like?

- How can we be a part of helping them have a more accurate view of God?

What were some of the ways people encountered the power of God as they interacted with Jesus in the passages you read this week? How did that affect them?

What are some miracles you are praying God would do in the lives of your "four"?

How can we pray for one another?
